Buenos Aires, December 2, 1959

ADDRESS OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS TO:

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to report that the Sastrería De Carlo made me a suit with vest in October, 1959, which has proved satisfactory in every respect. Mr. De Carlo uses materials of high quality and he and his assistants work with conscientious care. After taking the initial measurements he schedules two successive fittings to be certain that the suit is a perfect fit. Mr. De Carlo and his employees use every courtesy and consideration in their relations with their customers. The De Carlo shop sets consistently high standards of workmanship.

Signed,

Charles N. St. John, Jr.
